Cape Town – West Coast – Wine Country – Whale Country – Safari

The Cape's Hidden Wonders – By Helicopter is a 12-day, once-a-year September journey that stitches together three of Southern Africa's rarest spectacles in a single, seamless arc: land-based whale encounters on the Whale Coast at peak season, the Namaqualand wildflower bloom at full blaze, and a private Big Five safari in the Sabi Sand. You lift out of Cape Town by helicopter and follow a line most visitors never even imagine — over elephant-cut passes, turquoise lagoons, stone cathedrals in the Cederberg, cellar doors opened just for you, an exclusive villa where whales perform in front of your stoep, and finally lowveld bush where lion tracks write the last chapter in the dust. This is September as locals dream of it and almost no one ever lives it: one continuous journey from mountain to lagoon, bloom to vine, vine to whales, and whales to wild.

Investment in Your African Journey

We don't publish prices, because no two Odysseys are ever the same.

Each journey is designed around one specific group of women, at one specific moment in their lives. A single "from USD X" would be fiction.

If this itinerary feels aligned with you, we'll discuss dates, preferences and configuration in a private consultation, and then issue a tailored proposal.
